

Lancaster Cathedral Concerts & Events Autumn 2009

Friday 9 October (7:30pm)

John Coulton, Trumpeter & David Dunnett, Organist, Norwich Cathedral

This concert features the Cathedral's newly restored pipe organ. The programme includes works by, among others, Stanley, Purcell and Verdi.

Tickets £10/£8

Sunday 18 October (8:00pm)

St Peter: Keeper of the Keys

The final of three dramas commissioned to mark the 150th anniversary of St Peter's Cathedral. St Peter, guardian of the pearly gates, meets a variety of prominent and interesting individuals from the Cathedral's – and Lancaster's – history. How easy will it be for them all to pass the Keeper of the Keys and enter Heaven?

Lancaster Grand Theatre. Tickets £5/Family £20; please book through the Grand (01524 64695)

Friday 6 November (7:30pm)

Pianist Costas Fotopoulos in Concert

This talented young pianist and composer has received much acclaim for his work for film and the stage as well as his performances as a concert and jazz pianist. Works by Beethoven, Chopin, Rachmaninov, Bolcom and Fotopoulos.

Tickets £10/£8

Saturday 14 November (2:00pm - 5:00pm)

Plainsong Workshop

Learn Gregorian Chant with the Cathedral's Schola Cantorum and sing a Mass for the Dead in November. St Walburge's Chapel. Entrance free; please book in advance by phoning Cathedral House.

Wednesday 18 November (7:30pm - 9:00pm)

Cathedral Christmas Craft Fair

Local artists and craftspeople showcase their wares; one-stop shopping for those perfect holiday gifts!

Cathedral Social Centre; entrance £2 (includes a mince pie)

Friday 11 December (7:30pm)

Candlelight Baroque with the Lancashire Sinfonietta

Fabulous Baroque programme including Vivaldi's Flute Concerto in D and Rebel's Les Elémens. Wrap up warmly and join us in the candlelit Cathedral to get your festive season underway!

Tickets £10/£7.50

Tickets & Information available from:

Tourist Information (01524 582394)

Cathedral House (01524 384820)

events@lancastercathedral.org.uk

www.lancastercathedral.org.uk

Lancaster Cathedral Concerts & Events Autumn 2009

Friday 9 October (7:30pm)

John Coulton, Trumpeter & David Dunnett, Organist, Norwich Cathedral

This concert features the Cathedral's newly restored pipe organ. The programme includes works by, among others, Stanley, Purcell and Verdi.

Tickets £10/£8

Sunday 18 October (8:00pm)

St Peter: Keeper of the Keys

The final of three dramas commissioned to mark the 150th anniversary of St Peter's Cathedral. St Peter, guardian of the pearly gates, meets a variety of prominent and interesting individuals from the cathedral's – and Lancaster's – history. How easy will it be for them all to pass the Keeper of the Keys and enter Heaven?

Lancaster Grand Theatre. Tickets £5/Family £20; please book through the Grand (01524 64695)

Friday 6 November (7:30pm)

Pianist Costas Fotopoulos in Concert

This talented young pianist and composer has received much acclaim for his work for film and the stage as well as his performances as a concert and jazz pianist. Works by Beethoven, Chopin, Rachmaninov, Bolcom and Fotopoulos.

Tickets £10/£8

Saturday 14 November (2:00pm - 5:00pm)

Plainsong Workshop

Learn Gregorian Chant with the Cathedral's Schola Cantorum and sing a Mass for the Dead in November. St Walburge's Chapel. Entrance free; please book in advance by phoning Cathedral House.

Wednesday 18 November (7:30pm - 9:00pm)

Cathedral Christmas Craft Fair

Local artists and craftspeople showcase their wares; one-stop shopping for those perfect holiday gifts!

Cathedral Social Centre; entrance £2 (includes a mince pie)

Friday 11 December (7:30pm)

Candlelight Baroque with the Lancashire Sinfonietta

Fabulous Baroque programme including Vivaldi's Flute Concerto in D and Rebel's Les Elémens. Wrap up warmly and join us in the candlelit Cathedral to get your festive season underway!

Tickets £10/£7.50

Tickets & Information available from:

Tourist Information (01524 582394)

Cathedral House (01524 384820)

events@lancastercathedral.org.uk

www.lancastercathedral.org.uk