

St Thérèse

at

Lancaster Cathedral

In life she was a cloistered nun.
In death she has travelled the world.

She spent the whole of her short adult life in the Carmelite convent at Lisieux, but desired to be a missionary. In death her desire is fulfilled. Since 1997 the relics (mortal remains) of St Thérèse of Lisieux have travelled to over 40 countries, including Canada, Cameroon, New Zealand, Australia, Philippines, Russia, United States, Ireland, Lebanon and Iraq. Now they're coming here.

The relics of St Thérèse will be at Lancaster Cathedral, 28th-30th September 2009.
