

Treasures from the Cope Chest

An Exhibition of Liturgical Vestments Past & Present

29 June - 17 July 2011
Lancaster Cathedral

Free Daily Tours and Evening Talks

These tours and talks are free of charge. No advance booking needed.

Daily Tours of the Exhibition 10am and 2pm

Meet at the Cathedral Entrance. Tours will last approximately forty-five minutes.

Talks Wednesday July 6, Thursday July 7, Wednesday 13 July, Thursday 14 July

Evening talks begin at 7:30pm in St Walburge's Chapel (entrance from Balmoral Road). Titles to be confirmed. Please note that the exhibition will be closed during the evenings.

Lectures, Workshops and Clinics

These events are co-ordinated and led by Sue Pilkington Hanna, internationally known Ecclesiastical Restorer and Embroiderer. For further information or to book your place, please contact Sue (30 Castle Road, Whitby, North Yorkshire YO21 3NQ, phone: 01947604645, email: susiepdesigns@hotmail.co.uk).

Workshops are limited to ten (10) spaces and must be booked in advance.

Poorly Vestment Clinics Saturday 2 July (10am-12noon; 1pm-4:30pm)

Advice provided on an individual basis in respect of restoring vestments, altar frontals and other ecclesiastical pieces (excepting altar linen). Bring along your vestment or close-up photos.

Designing an Ecclesiastical Embroidery Project Sunday 3 July

Includes a two-hour talk on religious symbolism and design (fee: £10) and a hands-on drawing and designing workshop (fee: £20)

Starting a Vestment from Scratch Monday 4 July, Tuesday 5 July, Wednesday 6 July

Appropriate for all skill levels. Full-day workshop. Fee £40 per person per day.

The Basic Techniques of Vestment Restoration Saturday 9 July

Includes a one-hour talk on vestment restoration (fee £5) and a demonstration of basic restoration techniques (fee: £30)

Undertaking your own Restoration Project Sunday 10 July, Monday 11 July

Includes tuition and continuing support. Full-day workshop. Fee £40 per person per day.

Open Daily 9:30am until 7:00pm

Entrance Free; Daily Tours; Bookshop; Refreshments

Lancaster Cathedral 01524 384820; www.lancastercathedral.org.uk

Sponsored by the Friends of Lancaster Cathedral